

A Spiritual Signature

For luxury aficionado, here is a collectible limited edition fountain pen from Visconti that focuses on the holy Bible.

The new limited edition collection of Visconti fountain pens, take inspiration from the holy Bible. These large pens are hand-turned from ivory-coloured resins and using a scrimshaw technique, dry point engraved and filled with India ink. Intricate drawings depict scenes from the Old Testament on the barrel: Adam & Eve, Noah's Ark, David & Goliath and the Ten Commandments. An image of the Holy Grail is hidden inside the blind cap. Both pens have a decagonal crown and end cap, the latter engraved with the Ten Commandments in Hebrew. The collectible fountain pen is fitted with Visconti's two-tone, 18 carat gold nib and features a power piston-filler. It is available in a worldwide limited edition of only 999 pens. ■

