Tommy Hilfiger's Womenswear Spring / Summer 2012 Collection

For Spring/Summer 2012, the Tommy Hilfiger Womenswear collection announces a classic prep look with a global feel - in Prep World. Inspired by the globe-trotting adventures of The Hilfigers - the All-American family fronting Hilfiger's global advertising campaign - it's dominated by gorgeous patterned fabrics, fresh styles and a variety of new lengths and details in inspired fabrics.

LIV – A boutique nightclub opens its doors

LIV, a signature statement nightclub opens its doors at Kalaghoda, the city's upbeat heritage precinct, which adds an exclusivity tag to Mumbai's party circuit.

By invitation only, this signature statement nightclub for 25 and above will offer its guests bottled services in its uberluxe seating and dazzling night space.

The private party room is a hypnotic concept as it takes inspiration from the luminous sky as the reflective walls and fibre optics recreates a starry night turning it into sensorial treat.

Deepika Padukone inaugurates the 12th pin-up store of La Senza in India Launches the wild and lacy 'fierce collection.'

Deepika Padukone was the sassiest and naughtiest visitor that La Senza could have hoped for. She burst happy pink balloons, cut a pink cake and blushed a very impish pink when asked about lingerie. "That's too personal," she said. We agree girl and know that all young girls secretly enjoy the feeling of satin and silk on their skin.

As Deepika launched La Senzas 12th store in India at a new central Mumbai mall, she walked through the entire store admiring La Senzas all new 'fierce collection' along with Martin Waters, the global Director for La Senza and Vince Montemarano, Sr Vice President, La Senza International.

The spring summer collection, titled 'Fierce' is very girly, all set to unleash the wild side in you with classic prints. Exotic safari patterns of leopard spots, zebra stripes and snake prints are gentle on your skin.
